Bishop Stephen Mason Merrill, D.D., LL.D.

Bishop Merrill was the twenty-sixth among the sixty-four men who have been elected bishops of the Methodist Episcopal Church. Only one of the twenty-five whose election antedated his survives him, namely, Bishop Thomas Bowman, who was elected and consecrated together with Bishops Harris, Foster, Wiley, Merrill, Andrews, Gilbert Haven and Peck, in the order given, at the General Conference of 1872. Bishop Bowman was first in the order of election and consecration of the eight Bishops enumerated. He has attained the remarkable age of eighty-nine years. We present the following appreciative biographical sketch of the late Bishop Merrill, taken from the Michigan Christian Advocate of November 18, 1905:

"Like a shock of corn in full season, Bishop Stephen M. Merrill has been gathered to the fathers. He died at Keyport, New Jersey, last Sunday evening, November 12, 1905, of paralysis of the heart. He had been attending the general missionary committee sessions in Brooklyn, and had preached in the morning at Fleet Street Church, appearing as well as usual. In the evening he went to Keyport to conduct a service, when illness suddenly overtook him, and although physicians were hurriedly summoned, they could not stay the course of the paralysis, and he died at 11:10 P. M.

"Bishop Merrill was born at Mount Pleasant, Ohio, September 16, 1825. He was converted and united with the Methodist Episcopal Church October 31, 1842; was licensed to preach April 5, 1845; and in 1846 was admitted into the Ohio Conference. Though not classically educated, he was a close student, became well versed in literature, and in 1864 was honored by Asbury University with the degree of A. M. After serving a few years in the pastorate he was appointed presiding elder of Marietta District. In 1868 he was elected delegate to the General Conference, made a great speech on constitutional questions, and was elected editor of the Western Christian Advocate. Four years later he was elected bishop, serving most effectively until the session of the General Conference at Los Angeles in 1904, when he voluntarily laid down his official cares, honored, revered, and loved as never before. In every respect he was a great man, . . . a progressive thinker, a loyal Methodist, a masterly leader in church affairs, a genial personality, and a diligent and capable worker to the last. He fell with the harness on. His record will endure. Few bishops have left a greater name."
